

HE Mr. Amadou Dicko

Deputy Minister, Ministry of Agriculture, Animal Resources and Fisheries, Burkina Faso

HE Mr. Amadou Dicko is the Deputy Minister in charge of Animal Resources in Burkina Faso and a researcher at the Central Reference Laboratory of the National Institute of Public Health. With more than 10 years of experience in the field of veterinary medicine and public health, Dr. Dicko conducts research and development projects on viral hemorrhagic fevers, zoonoses, and artificial intelligence applied to animal health.